U.S. District Court for the Northern District of California

Re Jeremiah Revitch ("Plaintiff") v. Citibank, N.A. ("Citibank")
Case No. 3:17-cv-06907-WHA

Dear Judge Alsup:

Pursuant to paragraph 34 of the Court's Supplemental Standing Order, we write regarding the Court's August 1, 2018 Order re Discovery Dispute (the "Order"). Since the Order was issued, Citibank has worked diligently to identify a realistic and administratively feasible method of complying with the Order. At this time, Citibank estimates the size of the data to be produced to be multiple terabytes of data. Due to the anticipated large size of the production, Citibank is unable to comply with the August 8 deadline in the Order. As a result, counsel for Citibank and Plaintiff have been meeting and conferring to work out a production schedule. Citibank anticipates confirming by Friday the time needed to comply. Based on preliminary estimates, Citibank anticipates the production could take up to 30 days to complete, absent unforeseen problems. Counsel for Citibank will continue to confer with Plaintiff's counsel and update the Court regarding the discussions, including any proposed agreed-upon production schedule set by the parties.

Respectfully submitted,

Marcos D. Sasso
Counsel for Defendant Citibank, N.A.
